CONTACT BIB SHORT (MAN)

03331901100000.10

Our integrated pad & brace system for bib shorts revolutionises today's concept of pad placement and greatly enhances fit and comfort. The new construction creates channels through which the braces are guided directly to the pad, which is partially disjointed from the short itself to allow a more adaptive connection to the individual contours of the wearer's body shape. Through four welded channels placed at waist level, the braces are independent yet held perfectly in place, guaranteeing excellent stability and allowing the pad to adapt and follow every movement of the rider whilst pedalling. This system represents a new era in comfort providing protection and freedom of movement not achievable with traditional construction. The pad will constantly fit the body when worn, as if it were part of the rider.

The upper part of the bib-short is also minimal and apart from the braces themselves, the need for additional fabric for support is unnecessary. In the summer especially, this allows the rider to stay fresher and dryer with higher ventilation.

Contact bib shorts have been granted a European patent.
